City of Wiener Neustadt

Wiener Neustadt is a city located 40 kilometers south of Vienna. The population is more than 40,000. The city of Wiener Neustadt presents itself as a city with important functions for industry, trade and research.

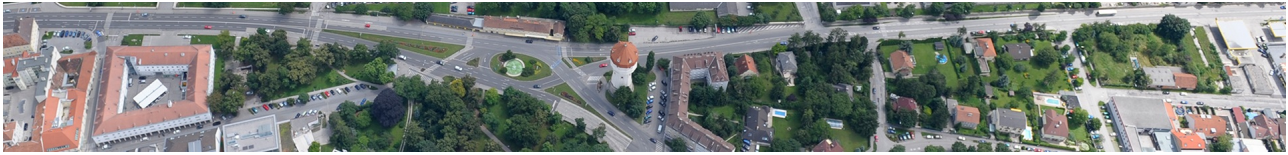

Theresan Military Academy

The city of Wiener Neustadt is the site of one of the world's oldest military academies, the Theresan Military Academy, which was established by Empress Maria Theresa of Austria in 1752 to train officers for the Austrian army.

For more information about the Theresan Military Academy visit the TMA-Homepage (in English language).

The sport facilities at the campus of Theresan Military Academy are fit for the 2021 military pentathlon tournament.