

Welcome to the international homepage of the FH-Bachelor Programme Military Leadership at the Theresan Military Academy.

Since 2005, the FH-Bachelor Programme Military Leadership at the Theresan Military Academy has been exchanging lecturers, staff and students with other countries. The main purpose is to increase interoperability and intercultural competence in order to prepare our Officer Cadets for managing their future challenges best.

Both, incoming and outgoing activities assure for international and Austrian Officer Cadets & students increasing their learning outcomes, which goes hand in hand with the European Union's strategic goal of higher education and the "European initiative for the exchange of young officers inspired by Erasmus?".

On these international pages, you can find the entire information provided for national and international military and civilian students as well as for lecturers and staff concerning international activities.
