

The Maria Theresa's Hall of Knights is the ceremonial and honorary hall of the Military Academy. The room is also used for receptions, symposia, lectures and celebrations.

► International Conference in the The Maria Theresa's Hall of Knights

It is also the place where each new officer's class is awarded the class badge. The paintings on the sidewalls of the hall depict Empress Maria Theresa, the founder of the Military Academy, as well as important holders of the Military Maria Theresian Order.