

TRENDS!

North Korea's New Nuclear Underwater Drone-Torpedo Follows Russia's Playbook

North Korea's torpedo-like underwater drone would allow for nuclear warhead delivery without confronting South Korea's air defenses.

North Korea Unveils Look-Alike Global Hawk, Reaper Drones

The two drones first appeared in satellite imagery last month, and have now been unveiled to the public including video of them in the air.

British Army trial new e-bike for battlefield

As part of a more agile army, soldiers will cycle battery-powered mountain bikes in order to have a silent approach when fighting the enemy.

MUST VIEW! – Ukraine Special

PTKM-1R in Ukraine: Russia's Most Advanced Anti-Tank Mine

The PTKM-1R is a sophisticated top-attack mine which is arguably Russia's most advanced anti-tank mine. It has been seen in Ukraine several times since April. In this video we take a look at how the mines work and at the imagery of the captured examples.

Why Lancet Drones Highly Effective in Ukraine?

ZALA has shown ongoing efforts to enhance the Lancet drone. "Product-53" can be remotely launched from a Multiple-Launch System and has the capability to communicate with other drones, enabling coordinated "Drone Swarm Tactics" to target specific objectives.

